Message

I am pleased to know that the Centre for Distance and Online Education (CDOE), University of Jammu, is bringing out Admission Brochure for various UG and PG courses in Open & Distance Learning and Online mode for the Academic Session 2026-2027.

The Centre embodies our University's unwavering commitment to making quality higher education accessible to all regardless of geography, circumstance or constraint. Through its thoughtfully designed distance and online programmes, CDOE opens the doors of the University of Jammu to students across the region and beyond, enabling them to pursue their academic aspirations without compromising their personal or professional responsibilities.

CDOE offers a rich and diverse portfolio of programmes spanning the humanities, social sciences and commerce. These include Master's programmes in English, Hindi, Urdu, Dogri, Punjabi, Sociology, Political Science, Education, Economics and Commerce (M.Com), along with undergraduate programmes in Arts (BA) and Commerce (B.Com); and B.Ed. in UG professional category The Centre also offers skill-oriented Certificate Courses in Taxation and GST filing, besides introduction of a new course M.A History, further broadening the academic choices available to the learners. These programmes are offered through: Open & Distance Learning (ODL) and MA English & M.Com through Online Learning (OL) mode; each designed to provide flexibility, academic rigour and robust learner support.

I warmly invite prospective students to explore these opportunities and take this important step toward investing in their future. The University of Jammu is committed to walk alongside each student on their academic journey, providing not just knowledge and qualifications, but the confidence and capability to thrive in a rapidly evolving world.

I extend my best wishes to all those choosing to be a part of the CDOE family.

From the Desk of The Director

It gives me immense pleasure to place before you the ODL and Online Admission Brochure 2026-2027. Established with the vision of taking quality higher education to every doorstep, CDOE is committed to providing flexible, accessible, and learner-centric education through Open, Distance and Online Learning modes in accordance with the vision of NEP-2020.

CDOE is offering diverse academic programmes to meet the aspirations of learners from different background. In ODL mode, we offer eleven PG Programmes in Commerce, Dogri, Economics, Education, English, Hindi, History, Political Science, Punjabi, Sociology, and Urdu; and Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Commerce at Undergraduate level. Besides, CDOE's Online M.A. in English and M.Com. have gained recognizable popularity among learners. We also offer the B.Ed. programme in ODL mode for eligible in-service candidates, enabling teachers to enhance their academic qualifications and professional competencies without interrupting their careers. All these programmes stand duly approved by the University Grants Commission- Distance Education Bureau (DEB). Further, CDOE is also committed to lifelong learning and skill development. Diploma in Gyani, along with certificate courses in Goods and Services Tax, E-Filing of Income Tax Returns and Basic Accounting, provide opportunities for learners to acquire practical knowledge and employability-oriented skills relevant to contemporary professional and entrepreneurial environments.

CDOE has dedicated and experienced faculty, responsive officers and diligent staff who work together to 'reach the unreached' and promote learning with modern educational policies to enable learners to pursue self-paced learning to upskill and reskill for a dynamic global market. Our self-learning resources, both print and online, are continuously updated. Besides, flexible, self-paced learning, CDOE gives immense opportunities to learners through NSS, Sports and Cultural activities to showcase their talent with opportunities for networking and personal development. Our learners excel not only in academics but have carved a niche in the field of sports and creativity. Every year many learners across disciplines get employment through UPSC, JKPSC, SSC, NET and in Corporate Sector, HEI etc., and also as entrepreneurs.

I welcome all candidates-youth, in-service professionals, homemakers enrolled for different programmes at CDOE and hope that you will make the best use of academic, extension and talent exhibit opportunities for your holistic personality development to meet the professional and personal challenges of the contemporary times.
I encourage you to explore the options, imagine what you can achieve, and take the next step with confidence.

On behalf of everyone at CDOE, I extend my best wishes for your success and look forward to welcome you into our learning family.

A. About University of Jammu

Recognized as one of the premier institutions of the country, the University of Jammu, accredited as 'A++' (CGPA:3.72) Grade University by National Assessment and Accreditation Council of India (NAAC) is ranked 51st in University category under NIRF- 2025, and has also been granted autonomy by the UGC, and in terms of this graded autonomy is Category-I University. University of Jammu came into existence in 1969 vide Kashmir and Jammu Universities Act 1969 following bifurcation of the erstwhile University of Jammu and Kashmir by an ordinance promulgated by the Governor on September 5, 1969 , which was subsequently adopted as an Act of the State Legislature. Lieutenant Governor of the J&K Union Territory (UT) is the Chancellor of the University. And Chief Minister of the J&K UT is the Pro-Chancellor of the University. Besides, the main campus and old campus in Jammu, the University has eleven (11) offsite campuses, out of which seven (07) campuses located at Bhaderwah, Kathua, Kishtwar, Poonch, Ramnagar, Reasi and Udhampur are functional. Teaching-learning and research is being carried out by more than 50 Teaching Departments in the main campus of the University. There are about 170 affiliated colleges, awarding Degree/ Diploma in more than sixty (60) programmes at the P.G. and the U.G. Levels.

The main campus at Bahu Wali Rakh with an area of 118.78 acres, houses the Teaching Departments, Centres, Administration Block, Examination Wing, College Development Council, Department of Students Welfare, Centre for Distance & Online Education, Dhanvantri Library, Computer Centre , Health Centre, Guest House, Post Office, J&K Bank, Gymnasium, Hostels, Cafeteria and Canteens, Residential Quarters, and many other facilities.

The second campus of the University (the old campus), located at a distance of 4 km from the main campus, is spread over 10.5 acres and currently houses a hostel for boys and residential quarters for teaching and non-teaching employees. The university is truly treading the path of growth which is reflected in the developments over the past more than fifty years.

Introduction of new courses and self-financing programmes, Design Your Degree (DYD), increase in the number of affiliated colleges, use of Information Communication Technology (ICT), impetus to research, collaborations and infrastructural developments are the key initiatives taken in the recent years.

University of Jammu introduced NEP-2020 w.e.f academic session 2022-23 in its U.G. programmes at all its affiliated colleges. The U.G programmes are renamed as the Four Year Under Graduate Programmes (FYUGP) under NEP-2020 with multiple entry and multiple exit options to the students in sync with the essence of NEP. The National Education Policy (NEP) is adopted to provide the students diverse exposure and also nurture their critical thinking skills and knowledge. The University's focus is on producing well-groomed individuals who can excel professionally and personally thereby appealing the employers due to their broad perspective.

Departments at the University of Jammu are offering diverse programmes in various fields like sciences, arts, humanities, architecture, engineering, education, law, and mass communication. Besides, University of Jammu showcases a well-established culture of interdisciplinary teaching and research.

B. Central Facilities

CENTRAL LIBRARY

Central Library of the University, the Dhanvantri Library is housed in a three storied building constructed over an area of 60,000. It has a rich collection of books, journals and periodicals, manuscripts, dissertations, thesis, etc., which cater to the varied academic and research needs of the users. The library has large reading halls and compact stack areas with open access. About 750 students can be accommodated in the reading area of the library. Most of the functions of the library have been computerized. RIFD technology is being used for security purpose. For efficient and easy retrieval of bibliographic information from the vast collection of the Library, OPAC (Online Public Access Catalogue Service) has efficiently been placed in the Dhanvantri Library for the readers. Access of EDUSAT is provided to students, research scholars and faculty members.

HEALTH CENTRE

A First Aid Centre was initially established in the premises of the boys' hostels of the University managed by a part-time medical assistant. Later, the First Aid Centre was upgraded to a full-fledged Health Centre to provide medical aid benefits to the University community and the dependents of the University employees. The Health Centre has grown manifold over the years. The facilities provided are OPD level treatment; Emergency Service; Dental Facility; Physiotherapy; Ultrasound; ECG Facility; Clinical Laboratory; Ambulance service; Immunization camps with DHS and other organizations and Mental Health Counseling; Treatment of sports personnel during Sports Meet and regular physical checkup of sports students; Regular checkup of children of Pre-school located in the Department of Home Science; Medical Aid for retired University staff and their families.

Apart from this, the Health Centre also looks after sanitation and cleanliness in and around the campus, canteens, hostels and undertakes disposal of garbage in collaboration with the Jammu Municipal Corporation. The Health Centre also provides for reimbursement facility during hospitalization of employees. Different Laboratory tests are also conducted here.

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS)

In India, National Service Scheme was started to establish a meaningful linkage between the campus and the community. The NSS was launched in the University of Jammu in the year 1981. The University of Jammu gives substantial credit to NSS volunteers for seeking admission in the various UG/PG courses of the University of Jammu on the basis of their performance as an NSS volunteer. In recent past, NSS in the University of Jammu has made tremendous strides in the field of social work, community extension reach out activities and personality development.

Based on the successful conduct of activities by NSS in the University of Jammu, the allocated strength of NSS volunteers has been increased by the Ministry of Sports and Youth Affairs, Government of India. The University organizes regular workshops and programmes for the NSS volunteers.

STUDENTS WELFARE

The office of the Dean Students Welfare, established in 1972, is responsible for planning, organizing and conducting student welfare programmes including cultural and literary activities, festivals, extensions and special lectures, etc. It monitors the facilities for organising various academic and cultural/literary activities, working of the canteens, kiosks for various student services like photocopying, stationery, book shop, etc., on the campus.

GENERAL ZORAWAR SINGH AUDITORIUM COMPLEX (GZSAC)

General Zorawar Singh Auditorium Complex, a mega infrastructure facility of the University, was established in 2007. The auditorium showcases the rich, diverse and pluralistic traditions and heritage of Ladakh, Jammu and Kashmir, and is a step towards meeting the needs and aspirations of the students and the people of the region. The Complex houses an auditorium, a museum and an art-gallery. The auditorium is named after General Zorawar Singh a Dogra soldier, famous for his military expeditions. The Museum is named after Shiekh Noor-Ud-Din Noorani, a great sufi and propagator of Rishi cult in Kashmir and the art gallery is named after Rinchen Bzangpo, a scholar and propagator of Buddhism in Ladakh and the founder of Gompas, famous for their architecture and design.

The auditorium has a seating capacity of around 1400 and can be divided into two with the help of a state-of-art hydraulic stage and sliding-folding partition to create a mini auditorium with a seating capacity of 400. The complex also has a brainstorming room, a reading room cum library, an exhibition hall, a souvenir shop, a green room, etc.

The major collection in the gallery is of contemporary paintings. These paintings have been received from the artists who participated in the "All India Contemporary Artists Camp" at Patnitop (Jammu) in October 2004,organized by the University of Jammu.

The other collection is of black and white photographs, sketches and painting which have been donated by renowned artists and art historians: Prof. S.D.S Charak, Sh. Sati Sahni and Sh. Sarabjeet Singh.

The art gallery also houses some beautiful wooden sculptures, which were carved in the special "Wood Carving Camp" organized by the University of Jammu in 2005 and attended by renowned sculptors from all over the country. The other collection is of black & white photographs, sketches & paintings donated by artists and historians.

The Shiekh Noor-Ud-Din Noorani museum housed at the ground floor of the complex has a collection of artifacts covering the history of J&K through various ages. The interesting displays in the museum include the remains of Krimchi Temple and a replica of Burzahom pit. Through this unique combination of an art gallery, museum and an auditorium, the University of Jammu seeks to create a holistic academic ambience, where students have exposure to visual arts, performing arts and culture not just for career building but enriching their existing faculties and bringing forth new ones.

The auditorium is being utilized for holding conferences, seminars, award functions and concerts by the various departments of the University, affiliated colleges, educational institutions, social organizations, etc.

BRIGADIER RAJINDER SINGH AUDITORIUM (BRSA)

Brigadier Rajinder Singh Auditorium, named after Rajinder Singh MVC, the Saviour of Kashmir, has a seating capacity of 320. It has two green rooms and is centrally air conditioned with sophisticated sound system. It is also responsible for maintaining discipline, law and order.

SPORTS FACILITIES

Apart from offering B.P.Ed. and M.P.Ed. programmes, the Directorate of Sports and Physical Education organizes various Sports Competitions/ Tournaments, Hiking/Trekking and Mountaineering expeditions for the students of the affiliated colleges and the University departments. The Sports Infrastructure on the main campus includes a Cricket Ground with net facility, Football Ground, Basketball/ Handball/Kho-Kho/Volley Ball/ Lawn Tennis Courts, Athletic Track (400 mts.), University Fitness Centre, etc. The University also has a Gymnasium Hall which has been named as P V Sindu Gymnasium Hall.

C. About Centre for Distance & Online Education

Centre for Distance & Online Education (formerly known as Institute of Correspondence Education and later Directorate of Distance Education & afterwards Directorate of Distance and Online Education) was established on 3rd March 1976 in the University of Jammu. With the establishment of this institute, the University of Jammu within 7 years of its establishment became a dual mode University from a conventional University. Centre for Distance & Online Education (CDOE) is located within the main campus of the University of Jammu. It has its own buildings and infrastructure to provide all the support services to the learners.

CDOE offers undergraduate and postgraduate programmes. The enrolment has grown from less than 100 learners in the year of its establishment to approximately 10,000 learners in the academic session 2025-26. This multi-faculty institution has 11 permanent teachers with a strong orientation and experience in distance education along with 12 contractual faculty who are equally trained in imparting learning through both ODL and online mode. CDOE also uses the services of visiting faculty, guest faculty and faculty from the regular departments of the University.

In order to augment the delivery of the programmes being offered, latest and updated Self-Learning Material is provided to the learners by hand/ online at the time of admission.

CDOE has adequate infrastructure in the form of halls and counselling sessions and Smart classrooms for Personal Contact Programme (PCP) CDOE also has a well-stocked library with a collection of over 37,742 books and a computer laboratory with Internet and Wi-Fi facility.

CDOE has also established a network of Learner Support Centres (LSC) at GDC,Rajouri; GDC, Kathua; GDC, Udhampur; and GDC, Bhaderwah to provide effective academic and administrative support to learners.

The support staff and administrative staff of the CDOE is trained and committed to provide excellent service to the satisfaction of learners.

Learners enrolled at CDOE have the opportunity to exhibit their skills and talent by participating in sports activities and Display Your Talent. Besides, those learners interested in social and community service get enrolled as volunteers in the National Service Scheme Unit-IV and contribute to the concerned community service.

Recently, the Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board (NCWEB), has been established at CDOE for female students, giving them the opportunity to attend classes at weekend for earning UG Degree. Also to enhance the Computer skill training of UG and PG Learners CDOE has signed an MoU with NIELET for short term skill training programme.

18. Attendance:

In order to earn eligibility to sit in the semester- end examination, each learner in-service teacher is required to obtain 80% attendance of the total lectures delivered during the PCP in each course offered by him/her in that semester. 90% attendance is compulsory for practical components of the programme like internship and internal practice of teaching. Regarding the attendance of contact programmes, the attendance record will be maintained by the resource person concerned and the record of the attendance of the practical components of the course i.e., internship and internal practice of teaching shall be maintained by the senior teacher/ headmaster/principal of the practice teaching school allotted to the trainee/ where the learner in-service teacher is working. The percentage of attendance earned by the learner in-service teacher will be awarded according to a set procedure, which is as follows:

95% and above = 5
Less than 95 and above 90% = 4

Less than 90% and above 85% = 3
Less than 85% and equal or above to 80% = 2

19. Shortage of Attendance & Condoning the Shortage:

The Course Coordinator in consultation with the Director/ Competent Authority may condone shortage of a learner in- service teacher in attendance in a particular contact programme for special reasons, to be recorded in writing, up to 5% of the lectures delivered. But the internship and internal practice of teaching is to be done by the learner in-service teacher, for which no condoning is effective. The internship and practice of teaching is compulsory.

20. Eligibility for Examinations

1. At the end of every semester, semester/term end examination would be held by the University as per the academic calendar/ schedule. All the learner in-service teachers who have fulfilled the conditions of attendance, internals as well as Internship cum Teaching Practice, shall be allowed to take examination.
2. Examinations in the 1st and 3rd semester courses will be held in November and examination in the 2nd and 4th semester courses will be held in May every year or on such dates as may be approved by the Vice-Chancellor.
3. The examination shall be open to the learners in-service teacher who:

a) has a good conduct and character;

b) has completed 80 % of attendance in each subject in theory and 90% for school internship in each semester.

c) has completed school internship as per the norms laid down for the same;

Ex-learner teacher i.e. persons who after having undergone a course of study and having completed all conditions of eligibility for appearance in a course or courses in a semester end examination including minimum attendance requirement an d having secured D grade in sessional work. and having either failed to pass the semester examination in that course(s) or has been unable to appear in the examination in that course(s) will be eligible to appear as a private learner in a examination by submitting his /her application on the prescribed form along with prescribed fees to reach the Controller of Examinations within the dates fixed for this purpose.

Note:

Not with standing anything contained in these Statutes, the Syndicate shall have the power to exclude any learner from appearing in any examination if it is satisfied after issuing a show-cause notice to the learner and holding an inquiry that such a learner is not a fit person to be admitted there to.

21. Admission in the next Semester :

b. Provided that a late fee as per the notification issued from time to time shall be paid by each learner seeking admission after the last prescribed date, upto 3 days maximum delay and there after no admission for continued enrolment shall be made. Notwithstanding anything contained above the Vice- Chancellor shall be competent to alter the above schedule of continued enrolment.

There will be carry-on system in the Two-year B.Ed. programme and supplementary examination in the 3rd & 4th semesters of Two year B.Ed. programme (as approved by the University Council).

22. Examination:

The Examination is a continuous process and the formative and summative techniques would be used to complete the process of examinations. The semester end examination will be conducted at the end of each semester by the Controller of Examinations, University of Jammu as in the case of regular students. The examination would be held in the following components:

a) Theory Papers (External Examination):

The theory comprises the core subjects and the content-cum- methodology papers. The theory examination will be held as per the date sheet notified by the Controller of Examinations. The minimal pass percentage for learners is the same as is in vogue in the colleges of education affiliated to the University of Jammu. The scheme of evaluation of the learner will be based on internal and external modes of evaluation. The evaluation shall be as per the scheme approved by the Board of Studies in Teacher Education, University of Jammu and as in vogue for regular colleges of education.

b) Internship-cum-Teaching Practice Examination (External Examiners):

The competent authority by the powers vested in him/her would appoint external examiners for the evaluation of various components pertaining to practical course work like practice of teaching, internship, project work etc., from the panel submitted by the convenor Board of Studies in Teacher Education. The qualification and eligibility for an external examiner is the same as is in vogue for the colleges of education affiliated to the University of Jammu.

23. Award of Degree:

The successful learner of the B.Ed. programme through the distance mode by the CDOE shall be awarded the same degree as is awarded to the successful regular student of college of education affiliated to the University of Jammu. A learner in-service teacher shall be eligible for the award of the Degree of B.Ed. only if he/she has earned the required credits for the programme prescribed. The final results shall be displayed in grades as approved by the competent body. Those who obtain A+ to D grades are considered successful whereas, below D (i.e. E) is to be considered fail or dropped for the different components

a. Core /Foundation Courses
b. Pedagogy Cum Content Courses
c. Internship-cum-Practice Teaching & Project work

I. A learner teacher, who passes in theory but is not successful in Internship examination will not be a successful learner to earn the Degree as the learner has to be successful in all the three components (Core/ Foundation Courses, Teaching Courses and the Internship) simultaneously irrespective of the minimum of grades earned.

II. A learner in-service teacher, who is successful in Internship examination but not successful in Theory Part (Foundation Courses and the Teaching Courses) of the examination, shall be required to take the examination again in theory to earn the minimum grades to be declared eligible for award of B.Ed. Degree.

III. Learner in-service teachers pursuing the said course shall be permitted to complete the programme within a maximum period of five years from the date of the admission to the programme.

IV. In no case the Internship could be exempted fully or partially. It is to be done as suggested.

24. Enrolment Card:

It is mandatory for all learner in-service teachers to carry enrolment card while visiting University/ Centre for PCP, library, submission of assignments, appearing in the seminar/ presentation/viva voce or any other query.

25. Smart Card:

Learner in-service teachers will be issued smart card for borrowing books from the library.

26. General Instructions:

1. The admission granted to a learner in-service teacher may be cancelled at any time in case it is found that the learner in-service teacher has furnished incorrect information or false documents, or has suppressed the facts.
2. A person, so long as he/she is a learner of the B.Ed. programme, shall not be eligible to attend any other course of study (whole or part time) or to appear in any other examination either of the University of Jammu or any other University, provided that a learner in-service teacher, who has been placed under compartment or has to re- appear in one paper/ subject only or was scheduled to appear in the examination either as a regular or private learner before the commencement of first contact programme of the B.Ed. course through distance education mode but could not do so on account of delay in the conduct of normal examination of that course, shall be eligible to appear in that examination even after he has been admitted to the B.Ed. programme through distance education mode.
3. A learner in-service teacher, who on account of compelling circumstances, fails to complete the prescribed components of the programme during the year of enrolment, but has partially attended the course may be allowed by the Director, Centre for Distance & Online Education (CDOE) on payment of prescribed fee of Rs.1000/- to complete the course in the subsequent academic session provided the B.Ed. programme through distance education mode continues. Such a learner shall complete the components of the degree within the maximum period of 5 years.
4. A learner shall maintain good behaviour and conduct during the course of his enrolment to the B.Ed. programme. Any learner who indulges in misbehaviour or commits an act of misconduct or indiscipline or disrupts or tries to disrupt classes during the personal contact programme shall be dealt with the Regulations governing discipline of learner of the teaching departments of the University.
5. Learners undergoing the B.Ed. programme shall have to appear in the B.Ed. examination at the centres located at Jammu or at any other place within the territorial jurisdiction of the University of Jammu as may be decided by the Controller of Examinations.
6. The contact programme shall be conducted on such dates as may be notified by the Director, CDOE, from time to time preferably during vacations. The examination of the learner of B.Ed. programme mode shall be conducted on such dates as may be decided by the Controller of Examinations.
7. All legal disputes relating to the B.Ed. programme shall be subject to the jurisdiction of Jammu courts only.

literary traditions to explore how women have been represented in literature across ages. She observed that writers often embed their lived experiences into their creative work, transforming literature into a powerful repository of cultural memory and social history. She noted that such scholarship not only deepens academic inquiry but also inspires social change and broadens cultural understanding.

Stressing the importance of preserving linguistic heritage, she remarked that languages carry the emotional imprint of societies and help us understand how communities evolve and respond to their times. She further encouraged scholars, particularly women, to harness their inner strength, convert challenges into opportunities and pursue research with confidence.

Prof. Srivastava, in his address, emphasised the need to advance rigorous, gender-sensitive research in contemporary academia. He urged scholars to engage meaningfully with current issues affecting women and ensure their integration into mainstream literary discourse. Reflecting on the multifaceted representation of women in Hindi, Urdu, Kannada, Sanskrit and other Indian literatures, he traced the shifts in portrayals across time, drawing attention to seminal women-centric writings.

The seminar began with a Plenary Session chaired by Prof. Sushma Devi, Dean, Faculty of Arts. Esteemed panelists including Prof. Lalit Magotra, P Singh, Prof. Anup Prof. Kashmata and Dr. T. R. R valuable perspecti with the semina themes.

The formal proceedings began with a welcome address by Dr. Anuradha Goswami, Coordinator, M.A. Education and Convener of the function. She highlighted the significance of NEP-2020 in reshaping India's education system and emphasized that its effective implementation would pave the way for a prosperous and self-reliant nation under the vision of Viksit Bharat 2047. She stressed the importance of nurturing responsible citizens imbued with the value of "Nation First" and underscored the policy's learner-centric, skill-oriented, and holistic approach.

Prof. Pankaj K. Srivastava elaborated on the core spirit of NEP-2020, emphasizing its focus on skill development, innovation, employability, and multidisciplinary education. He highlighted digital initiatives, research, and capacity building as key components of the policy and reiterated CDOE's commitment to aligning distance and online education with national developmental goals.

In his keynote address, Dr. Mohd Zubair Kales described NEP-2020 as a visionary document aimed at transforming India's knowledge systems and developing youth into globally competent human capital. He explained how the policy replaces the National Policy on Education, 1986, and addresses contemporary challenges of the 21st century. He elaborated on its foundational pillars—access, equity, quality, affordability, and accountability—and emphasized universalization of education and the goal of achieving 100% literacy.

Dr. Kales also discussed provisions such as multidisciplinary learning, multiple entry and exit options, flexibility in subject choices including emerging fields like Artificial Intelligence and entrepreneurship, and the integration of Indian ethos and values within modern education. He underscored teacher empowerment, critical thinking, competency development, and leadership among youth as essential for realizing the vision of Viksit Bharat. He further reflected on India's aspiration to emerge as Vishwaguru, guided by the timeless philosophy of Satyam, Shivam, and Sundaram.

The lecture witnessed enthusiastic participation from faculty members, scholars, and students, followed by an engaging interactive session. The programme was conducted by Dr. Pooja Sharma, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, CDOE, and concluded with a formal vote of thanks by Dr. Anuradha Rani, who expressed gratitude to the Chief Guest and all participants. The event proved to be both informative and inspiring, reaffirming CDOE's commitment to academic excellence and its proactive contribution towards realizing the national vision of Viksit Bharat 2047.
